

THE SOVEREIGN HILL MUSEUMS ASSOCIATION
SEEKS EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST FOR THE POSITIONS OF

CAUSAL RELIEF TEACHERS

FOR SOVEREIGN HILL EDUCATION, COSTUME SCHOOLS AND/OR NARMBOOL

The Sovereign Hill Museums Association is a dynamic group of museums comprising of the Sovereign Hill Outdoor Museum, Gold Museum and Narmbool. Our purpose at Sovereign Hill and the Gold Museum is to inspire an understanding of the significance of the central Victorian gold rushes in Australia's national story, and at Narmbool of the importance of the land, water and biodiversity in Australia's future.

Expressions of Interest are sought from suitably qualified and experienced teachers for Casual Relief Teaching opportunities in all or any of the following areas.

These positions require a reasonable level of physical fitness and much of the work will be outdoors. The ability to work Monday to Friday and at short notice is also necessary.

SOVEREIGN HILL EDUCATION

Our education programs align with the Victorian Curriculum. We design and deliver face-to-face teaching programs tailored to suit the specific learning agendas of school groups and their teachers from Prep to VCE. If you are excited about the opportunity to dress up and teach primary and secondary students from all over Australia in our exciting outdoor museum, this position may be for you.

NARMBOOL

This position is for someone who is fit and keen to teach elements of Science, Sustainability, STEM and the Arts in a dynamic outdoor environment. Our education programs are immersive explorations of the unique environments on Narmbool and their past, present and future uses.

Our programs are suited to upper primary and lower secondary students who visit on 1-4 day camps, but also include VCE and tertiary groups.

Narmbool is a 2,000 hectare working farm approximately 30kms drive from central Ballarat and requires staff on site from approximately 9am - 4:30pm. Teaching activities are predominately outdoors regardless of weather and can include significant amounts of walking and physical activity. In 2019 there will be a high likelihood of at least 1 day of work per week for most school weeks of terms 1, 2 and 3 and of multiple days per week during peak periods including early Term 1.

For full details on the position and information on how to apply please visit our website at sovereignhill.com.au/careers.

Please ensure that you specify in your application which, if any, of the positions you have a preference for and tailor your application accordingly.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE MIDNIGHT WEDNESDAY 23RD JANUARY 2019

Applicants must be eligible to work in Australia and VIT registration, appointment is subject to satisfactory Police Record and Working with Children Check.
