

LAMPLIGHT TOURS – SENIOR TOUR GUIDE

CASUAL

The Sovereign Hill Museums Association is a dynamic group of museums comprising of the Sovereign Hill Outdoor Museum, Gold Museum and Narmbool. Our purpose at Sovereign Hill and the Gold Museum is to inspire an understanding of the significance of the central Victorian gold rushes in Australia's national story, and at Narmbool of the importance of the land, water and biodiversity in Australia's future.

Lamplight Tours is a new offering as part of Sovereign Hill's night show activities. Lamplight Tours leads visitors into the darker side of goldfields life, visiting some intriguing places and characters.

Tours run Saturday evenings and you would be required for approximately 2-3 hours per shift.

We are looking for a Senior Tour Guide to join the team on a casual basis. In this costumed role, the Senior Lamplight Tour Guide entertains, informs and engages visitors through the delivery of the Lamplight Tour whilst presenting the social and mining history of Ballarat as close as possible to time constraints and providing and maintaining excellent customer service standards at all times.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL YOU MUST HAVE:

- strong performance/presenting skills with the confidence to address large groups of approx. 40 people
 - excellent customer service skills
 - self-motivation with the ability to work within time constraints
 - demonstrated retail and cash handling skills
 - availability to work evenings and weekends

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been looking for please visit our website at sovereignhill.com.au/careers for more information including a full position description and information on how to apply.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE MIDNIGHT SUNDAY 24TH FEBRUARY 2019

Applicants must be eligible to work in Australia and appointment is subject to satisfactory Police Record and Working with Children Checks.
