

OPERATIONS INTERPRETER

CASUAL

Sovereign Hill is a dynamic group of museums presenting the mining, social, cultural and environmental heritage of the Ballarat region and its impact on Australia's history.

The Operations department is responsible for the delivery of the interpretive and visitor programs throughout the Outdoor Museum (and on occasion supporting the Mining Museum and Coach operations); logistical support for functions and events; management of the general environment including general cleaning and waste management; and for the small animal care program.

We are looking for casual Operations Interpreters to work in our Outdoor Museum. In this role you will be required to provide exceptional customer service to all visitors, undertake general cleaning, set up for functions, assist with deliveries within the museum and cover lunch breaks in the retail outlets.

To be successful you must have excellent customer service skills, cash handling skills, and the ability to communicate efficiently with all staff and visitors of Sovereign Hill. Experience with public speaking and performing would be highly regarded. You must be available to work weekends and public holidays.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been looking for please visit our website at www.sovereignhill.com.au/careers for more information including a full position description and information on how to apply.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE 5PM WEDNESDAY, 23 AUGUST 2017

Applicants must be eligible to work in Australia and appointment is subject to satisfactory Police Record, Working with Children Check and pre-employment medical.
